7.0.1.4: Counselor Approvals and Limitations: The council advancement committee is responsible for approval of all merit badge counselors before they provide services, although it is acceptable to delegate authority for this function to districts. The process should not be rushed to the point where unqualified counselors are allowed to serve. The National Council places no limit on the number of merit badges an individual may be approved to counsel, except to the extent a person lacks skills and education in a given subject. The intent is for Scouts to learn from those with an appropriate level of expertise.

For Occoneechee Council use only!
 If other than Occoneechee, please contact your council service center or council advancement committee for registrations procedures. MEM 5-8-14
