

Operation of Personal Vehicles by Youth

Adopted and approved by Troop Committee 4/3/2006

Troop 200/ Crew 200 does not encourage youth members to drive to Troop 200/ Crew 200 overnight activities. BSA policy forbids any participant under the age of 21 from transporting youth members other than siblings. Transportation to and from all Troop 200/ Crew 200 activities are provided and use of personal vehicles by youth should not be needed.

In the event that a youth member has a need to drive to an activity other than meetings and in town activities, his parents shall provide in writing; written permission, expected arrival time to the activity, departure time from the activity, and a phone number where the parent can be reached if the Scout fails to arrive.

Upon arrival the Scout shall report to the Scoutmaster and notify him of his arrival. All Scouts driving to an overnight activity shall upon arrival at the campsite park his vehicle where the Scoutmaster tells him to and shall relinquish the keys to the vehicle to the Scoutmaster. Keys shall be returned to the Scout at the departure time established between the Scoutmaster and the Parents.

No youth member who drives himself shall leave camp for any reason other than final departure.

No youth or adult under the age of 21 shall transport any youth member who is not a sibling for any reason.

Any youth member over the age of 16 must obey all state and local motor vehicle laws as well as all rules of the BSA and Troop 200/ Crew 200 as they pertain to vehicle operations. When arriving and departing the camping area all persons shall operate their vehicle in a safe manner observing all posted camp speed limits and shall at all times be alert for pedestrian traffic in the camping area.

Any youth member who leaves from an activity at anytime during the duration of the activity without prior parental consent and the permission of the Scoutmaster shall be subject to disciplinary actions from the Scoutmaster and/or the Troop Committee.

At no time shall any person participating in a BSA activity transport any other person in a position in or on the vehicle or towed behind vehicle that does not have a functioning DOT approved seat belt for every passenger. BSA and Troop 200/ Crew 200 strictly prohibit transportation of participants in the beds of trucks or in trailers at anytime.
